

TRANSPORT FACILITIES:

The Faculty of Social Sciences of the University Rey Juan Carlos is located very close to an underground station ("Vicalvaro", Line 9). Access by car is also convenient from the M-40 highway. Using the train (Cercanías) you have to stop in "Vicalvaro" and then take the underground to "Vicalvaro". Maps with additional details can be seen at the web page of the Meeting.

The participants located at the hotels suggested by the organisers (through the El Corte Ingles Travel Agency) will have free buses every day from the hotels to the Meeting. The Agency will inform them directly of the place and time (around one hour before the beginning of the first session) of departure.

There are two social activities in the program. On Thursday night, Madrid Town Hall will offer us a reception and cocktail at the Cecilio Rodríguez Gardens, one of the most beautiful spots of El Retiro Gardens. There will be free buses available for all participants from the University to the Gardens (located very close to the Vincci Soma Hotel).

On Friday, there will be a dinner at "La Hacienda" Restaurant, in Faunia. There will be free buses for all participants from the University to the restaurant and, afterwards, to the hotels suggested by the organisers.

On Saturday, after the farewell, there will be free buses from the University to the hotels suggested by the organisers.
